

Become a Member Today

Becoming a member of the Courtyard Gallery supports a community for one of the newest galleries in Sacramento. Located at 25th and R Street, the gallery is in the shared space with the Sacramento Poetry Center. Other resident arts organizations in the R 25 complex include California Stage and a number of artists' studios. Ray Tatar, founder and owner of the facility, celebrates 30 years this summer supporting the arts in the R 25 Arts Center community.

Membership in the Courtyard Gallery plays an important role through exhibitions, classes, public programs and events. As a member, you will receive benefits including previews, access to programs, special rates to rent the Gallery space, attend workshops and attend events including the Gala celebrating 30 years of supporting the arts at this special location.

Join today and show your dedication to the Courtyard Gallery and Sacramento Arts.

Members at all levels receive:

- Free admission to select gallery talks, lectures and workshops
- Special rates for renting the Courtyard Gallery for special events
- Exclusive preview hours for exhibitions
- Advance registration and discounts on select classes, workshops and special events

Cost of membership is $25.00 per year.

Contact Information

(note: all personal information is kept confidential, locked & secure, and never released or used for commercial purposes)

Name

Address

email

telephone